

Garden Center & Nursery

Growing with the Times

Windward Software has been serving Independent Garden Center and Nursery Retailers for over 30 years. As such, we're well aware of the challenges in the garden industry, and external influences that affect your business.

- » Peak times and seasonal events are critical for a large percentage of your annual income.
- » Staff turnover occurs and training new employees is needed every spring.
- » "Line-busting" and fast payment processing are essential.
- » Trends in customer relationship management and society influence your marketing activities.
- » Uncontrollable factors like weather and the economy can destabilize your income.

Windward designed its flagship product, Windward System Five, for garden centers and nurseries. This leading solution contains groundbreaking features that ensure quick payment processing, actually help you run your business, and establish opportunities for long-term growth.

Windward System Five does all of this for you, from point-of-sale to back-end accounting, complex inventory management and reporting to customer records.

We help you grow your business.

So you can help your customers grow their gardens.
